

Ascot Vale Primary School Equal Opportunity and anti-harassment Policy

Reviewed 2015 - Passed by School Council November 2015.

The Policy

Rationale

Ascot Vale Primary School (PS) aims to provide a welcoming, supportive, and emotionally and physically secure learning and working environment for every member of the school community. We recognise and promote human rights, and value the diversity of culture, beliefs, practices, customs, physical and intellectual abilities and life experience of the whole school community.

Aim

Ascot Vale PS aims to provide a safe, supportive and engaging multi-age learning community that aims to motivate and stimulate students' curiosity, enabling them to become creative and passionate lifelong learners.

We value: Multi-age learning, High Expectations for all, Diversity, Creativity & developing positive Relationships.

We create an inclusive school culture that fosters acceptance and respect for diversity. In doing so, we seek to deepen understanding and knowledge, promote student and staff wellbeing and help everyone achieve their full potential. This school is enriched by and celebrates the diversity of our whole school community. That is why discrimination, harassment, vilification, bullying and victimisation will not be tolerated at Ascot Vale PS under any circumstances.

Ascot Vale PS is committed to ensuring that the working environment is free from discrimination, harassment, bullying, vilification and victimisation. This school acknowledges that in society some people are treated unfairly or unfavourably because of irrelevant personal characteristics such as their sex or race. This school supports the Charter of Human Rights and the Equal Opportunity (EO) Act 2010 (Vic). Under the Equal Opportunity Act, it is against the law to discriminate against a person on the basis of the following protected attributes:

- age
- employment activity
- marital status
- pregnancy
- breastfeeding
- gender identity
- parental status
- race
- carer status
- industrial activity

- physical features
- religious belief/activity
- disability/impairment
- lawful sexual activity
- political belief or activity
- sexual orientation

The above includes personal association with someone who has, or is assumed to have, any of these personal characteristics. It is also against the law to sexually harass someone. Definitions of protected attributes can be found on the VEOHRC website: www.humanrightscommission.vic.gov.au

No member of the school community will be treated less favourably because they possess any of these personal characteristics nor will such characteristics affect access to benefits and services Ascot Vale PS provides. On behalf of the whole school community, the principal, the school council president, the parent association and the student representative council support this policy, and the human rights principles and practice of equal opportunity, inclusion and respect for diversity that it articulates.

Clarifying terms

Discrimination is unacceptable at Ascot Vale PS. Discrimination may be direct or indirect – both are against the law.

Direct discrimination means treating someone unfairly or less favourably because of one of the personal characteristics listed above or because of their association with someone identified with one of those characteristics.

Examples: refusing to enroll a student because he has Hepatitis C, refusing to allow a Muslim student to wear the hijab as part of her school uniform or failing to hire a suitably qualified teacher because of his or her sexual orientation.

Indirect discrimination happens when a rule, policy or requirement unnecessarily or unreasonably disadvantages a person or group of people because of a protected personal characteristic they share.

Example: Imposing a requirement that all students take notes from the whiteboard without assistance may unreasonably disadvantage a student with vision impairment. .

Harassment is unacceptable at Ascot Vale PS. Harassment is behaviour (through words or actions) based on the personal characteristics listed above that are unwanted, unasked for, unreturned and likely to make school an unfriendly or uncomfortable place by:

- humiliating (putting someone down)
- seriously embarrassing
- offending (hurting someone's feelings) or
- intimidating (threatening someone so they behave in a certain way).

Examples: name calling, stereotyping jokes and offensive comments.

Sexual harassment is an unwelcome sexual advance; request for sex or any other sexual behaviour that a reasonable person would know or expect would offend, humiliate, seriously embarrass or humiliate another.

Examples: unwanted touching, unwelcome sexual innuendo or jokes, displaying sexually explicit material (posters, emails, internet sites).

Racial and religious vilification is unacceptable at Ascot Vale PS

Vilification is behaviour (through words or actions) that incites hatred, serious contempt or ridicule of another person or group of people because of their race or religious belief.

Examples: public threats of harm, encouraging others to hate someone because of their religion, racist statements made in a public meeting, racist graffiti

Bullying is unacceptable at Ascot Vale PS

Bullying is unreasonable behaviour that is intimidating, threatening or humiliating and repeated over time or occurring as part of a pattern of behaviour. Bullying can be physical, verbal or indirect, and creates an unfriendly, threatening or offensive environment.

Examples: taking or damaging other people's property, excluding or isolating someone, subjecting someone to homophobic abuse, deliberately withholding information so as to affect their work performance, threatening not to renew an employment contract.

Victimising someone who makes an Equal Opportunity or Harassment complaint is unacceptable at Ascot Vale PS.

Victimisation means treating someone unfairly or otherwise disadvantaging them because they have made an Equal Opportunity complaint or might do so in the future.

Ascot Vale PS will take action to prevent discrimination, harassment, vilification, bullying and victimisation and to promote a safe and inclusive school.

Ascot Vale PS will take immediate and appropriate action to address and resolve Equal Opportunity issues and complaints.

Ascot Vale PS will take action to promote human rights both in terms of school policy and practice and within its educational activities and culture.

A human rights based approach means taking steps to assess the school's decisions and actions within the framework of the Charter and also taking proactive steps to encourage and promote wider school discussion and student learning on the key Charter themes of Freedom, Respect, Equality and Dignity.

Who and what this policy covers

This policy covers the whole school community, including staff, students, parents, school council members, contractors and volunteers.

This policy applies to:

- education (teaching and learning, enrolment, student management, student services, curriculum development and delivery)
- the provision of goods and services (extracurricular activities, camps, parent-teacher interviews, access to facilities)
- school sport

- employment at the school (recruitment, allocation of duties, employment conditions, access to benefits such as training, promotion and leave).

Policy framework and relevant information / support and advice

Ascot Vale PS Equal Opportunity and Anti-Harassment policy is one component of the Department's broader policy framework for the promotion of safe and inclusive schools and protection of human rights.

Rights and Responsibilities

Under this policy, every member of the Ascot Vale PS has the right to learn and work in a safe and inclusive environment free of discrimination, harassment, bullying, vilification and victimisation. Along with this right comes the responsibility to respect and promote human rights and responsibilities by behaving according to this policy.

The principal of Ascot Vale PS is accountable for implementation of this policy.

This policy will be reviewed regularly by and ratified by the school council. It is proposed that it will be reviewed every three years or as required.

Complaints procedures

Ascot Vale PS encourages all members of the school community to attempt to resolve complaints and concerns through the school.

All complaints will be treated confidentially, fairly and consistently, and resolved as speedily as possible.

Any member of the school community who raises an issue of discrimination, harassment, bullying or vilification in good faith will not be victimised or otherwise unfairly treated or disadvantaged. All complaints of victimisation will be taken seriously, investigated and acted upon as quickly as possible.

Every student and staff member at Ascot Vale PS should feel welcome, supported and emotionally and physically secure at school. The wellbeing of all students and staff is a priority for Ascot Vale PS. We understand that you cannot achieve your potential if someone is treating you unfairly, discriminating against you, vilifying, harassing or victimising you.

Complaints procedures exist to provide an avenue to address unacceptable behaviour. Complaints procedures are designed to explain what to do if you believe you have been discriminated against, harassed, sexually harassed, bullied, vilified or victimised as explained earlier in this policy and your complaint is about your education or employment at Ascot Vale PS or goods, services or sport provided by Ascot Vale PS.

If you are a member of staff:

Please refer to the Department of Education (DET) Guidelines for Managing Complaints, Unsatisfactory Performance and Misconduct guidelines.

If you are a parent or guardian:

Please refer to DET's Parent Complaints guidelines.

If you are a student:

You have the right to be part of a safe and inclusive school that is free of discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, bullying, vilification and victimisation. This includes treating you unfairly, excluding you or making you feel bad because of your:

- sex
- race
- sexual orientation
- physical features
- religious belief or activity
- carer status
- disability/impairment
- gender identity
- lawful sexual activity
- political belief or activity
- pregnancy
- personal association with someone who has, or is assumed to have, one of these personal characteristics.

If you believe someone is discriminating, harassing, bullying, vilifying or victimising you and it is safe for you to do so, tell the other person to stop their behaviour. Let them know that their behaviour offends you. They may not realise this.

If the behaviour doesn't stop or you are not sure what to do, report it to a trusted adult, such as a teacher, the year level co-ordinator, the principal or the Student Welfare Coordinator. Remember, you are not alone. If you have a problem or complaint, talking to someone, especially your parents can help. If you do not want to talk to anyone you know about it, you can find more information on the Kids Help Line, telephone 1800 55 1800 or web link <http://www.kidshelp.com.au/>

If the unfair treatment or harassment persists, you can call the Commission for free and confidential advice. Advice can be given over the phone or in person. If your issue is covered by Equal Opportunity law, the Complaints Officer will discuss it with you. They will then explain how the Commission can help you and the information you would need to include in a complaint should you decide to make one.

Ascot Vale PS will treat all reports of misconduct fairly, confidentially and quickly. Only people directly involved in the issue or complaint will be told about it. Each complaint will be investigated to work out whether it is more likely the behaviour happened than not and, if so, how serious it is. Appropriate action to resolve the problem will be taken.

The principal (or someone else they appoint) has responsibility for investigating complaints of discrimination, harassment, bullying, vilification and victimisation.

Consequences for students: If proven, the consequences of such behaviour may include counseling, the removal of privileges; a parental interview, suspension or expulsion. Ascot Vale PS will arrange counseling and support, where appropriate or where requested, for any student who has experienced bullying or harassment. Counseling may also be provided for a person who has bullied or harassed another.

The school may also need to discuss the incident with parents.

Ascot Vale PS will monitor how the complaint was resolved and the wellbeing of those involved. Further action will be taken if the problem behaviour continues.

Ascot Vale PS encourages all members of the school community to attempt to resolve complaints and concerns through the school if possible. It is also your right to seek help from outside the school. For example, you can contact the Department's regional office, the Ombudsman or the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (VEOHRC) for information or advice, or to make a complaint.

Right to appeal/review

If you are unhappy with the decision about your complaint, you may seek a review of the decision in accordance with departmental procedures.

Evaluation of policy

Every three years or earlier, if deemed necessary. It is anticipated that this policy will be reviewed again in 2018.
