

THE WEIRDEST FERRY RIDE EVER!!!!

“Hey Dad, can we go on a ferry boat? I have always wanted to do that” I said. Later that day Dad and I were walking in the streets and found a brochure. With the advertisement about a ferry ride. I pleaded with Dad if he would take me. He finally said “Yes we can go but it is in some place in Orkland which I have never heard of. I will look it up then. Oh it’s five hours away. If we leave early we could make it.” “ So we head tomorrow bright and early”. I said excitedly.

The next morning, I jumped out of bed, and in a few minutes I was ready to go. The five hour car drive was a bore. But I kept telling myself “It’s all worth it”. Then when the five hours were done, I jumped out of the car ready for anything like I was about to fight ten super villains at once. The sea breeze hit my face. Everything looked different though. The river was a greeny-purple colour, The sand was reddish and the clouds were pinkish. Then out of the corner of my eye, I saw two fairies with wings and fairy dust. Real wings.

“Dad, did you not read the brochure proply, that it said ‘Fairies to Ferry” I said. “OOPS,” Dad said. “ Well it would be a waste with that big car ride here”. So we hopped onto the fairies nervously. Then they poured the magic dust on, and we went fast. Super fast. Even with the mixup, It was still the best day ever.
